

Niceville High School

Niceville High School is consistently at the top when it comes to academics, athletics and extracurricular activities. Seniors earn in excess of $10 million in scholarships every year. Recognized throughout the state and nation, Niceville High School's reputation as a formidable foe continues to strengthen. Principal Linda Smith, along with an instructional staff of over 110, and a non-instructional staff of almost 40, are successfully educating approximately 1975 students every day. Accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Niceville High School has been named a New American High School by the U. S. Department of Education, acclaimed nationally as a Blue Ribbon School of Excellence and rated an "A" school in 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007 and 2008 by Florida's Commissioner of Education. Niceville High School is the recipient of the Florida Department of Education's prestigious Five Star Award given to schools which show evidence of exemplary community and parent involvement.

Niceville High School strives to meet the needs of all its students by offering extensive courses in Art, English, Family and Consumer Science, Foreign Language, Gifted Studies, Leadership, Math, Music, Physical Education, ROTC, Science and Social Studies. We offer 24 Advanced Placement courses as well as nine courses through the Academic International Certificate of Education (AICE) Program from the University of Cambridge in Cambridge, England. In addition, Niceville High School is home to a state-of-the-art Information Technology Institute which offers 17 industry certifications, giving our students a financially viable skill. Classes are also offered for those students needing additional resources in reading, math, science and social studies through our Intensive Studies Program. Our aim is to prepare students for a successful transition into college, vocational school or the work place.
